Introduction

It is the aim of All Saints RC School to make the examination experience as stress-free and successful as possible for all students.

Hopefully, this booklet will prove informative and helpful for you and your parents. Please read it carefully and show it to your parents so that they are also aware of the examination regulations and the procedures to follow in the event of any problems occurring.

The awarding bodies (or examination boards) set down strict criteria which must be followed for the conduct of examinations and All Saints RC School is required to follow them precisely. You should, therefore, pay particular attention to the Joint Council for Qualifications (JCQ) notices in the appendices of this booklet.

Some of the questions you may have are answered at the back of this booklet. If there is anything you do not understand or any question that has not been addressed, please ask.

If you or your parents have any queries or need help or advice at any time before, during or after the examinations, please contact school on (01904) 647877 and ask for

Mrs Donna Bell
Examinations Officer

All the best and good luck!

Before the Examinations

Statements of Entry:

All candidates will receive a proposed entry list from the school indicating the subjects they are being entered for and the levels of entry, where applicable. You should check everything on your proposed entry list very carefully. Particularly, check that all personal details (date of birth, spelling of names) are accurate as these will appear on certificates and it may be difficult to change them once certificates are awarded.

Examination Boards:

The school uses the following examination boards: AQA, OCR, Pearson (Edexcel) and WJEC.

Candidate Name:

Candidates are registered using legal names, not preferred names and should be the same as birth certificates and passports.

Candidate Number:

Each candidate has a four-digit candidate number. This is the number you will enter on examination papers. It will appear on your examination candidate card in the exam room.

Unique Candidate Identifier (UCI):

In addition to a candidate number, each candidate has a Unique Candidate Identifier (12 numbers and 1 letter), which is shown on your proposed entry list. This number will usually begin with the Centre Number (48378) unless you have transferred from another school that had already issued your UCI. Your UCI is used for administration purposes and it is not necessary for you to remember it.

Photographic ID cards:

Students are provided with photographic ID cards. These are distributed at the beginning of the school year for years 12 and 13 and at the start of the summer exam series for years 10 and 11. All students must bring their ID card to every exam in order to allow the invigilator to identify them. This is an exam board requirement and failure to identify a candidate could lead to a delay in the exam start time. Lost cards must be reported immediately to reception, replacement cards cost £5.

Timetables:

A copy of the exam timetable is available on the school's website. You will also receive an individual timetable showing your own specific examinations with details of date, time and duration of your examinations. Check it carefully. If you think something is wrong, see Mrs Bell, immediately.

Contact Numbers:

Please check that school has at least one up-to-date contact number for you.

Equipment:

Make sure you have all the correct equipment before your examinations;

- Black pens – pens should be black ink or ballpoint
- Pencils
- Ruler
- Pencil sharpener
- Eraser
- Mathematical instruments such as calculator, compass and protractor.
- Transparent pencil case or clear plastic bag.

For mathematics and science examinations, students should make sure their calculators conform to the examination regulations. If in doubt, check with your teacher. Remove any calculator covers or instructions and make sure batteries are new.

The school does not provide candidates with equipment and no item may be borrowed from another candidate during the exam so please make sure you arrive prepared!

During the Examinations

Examination Regulations:

JCQ issued rules and regulations that have to be strictly followed by all schools – these are attached to the back of this booklet. All candidates must read these carefully and note that to break any of the examination rules or regulations, could lead to disqualification from all subjects. The school has to report any breach of regulations to the awarding body.

Attendance at Examinations:

Candidates are responsible for checking their own timetable and arriving at school on the correct day and time, properly dressed in school uniform and fully equipped. Candidates must arrive 15 minutes prior to the start time of their examination. Please adhere to your usual registration process then go to the examination room entrance and wait quietly until you are escorted into the exam room by an invigilator. Morning exams start at 09:00am and afternoon exams start at 01:15pm.

Do not attempt to communicate with or distract other candidates.

Candidates who arrive late for an examination may still be admitted. If special consideration applies then you must speak to the Examinations Officer (see Absence from Examinations).

Full school uniform must be worn by all students attending school for examinations.

Prohibited Items:

Examination regulations are very strict regarding items that may be taken into the examination room (see FAQs at the end of this booklet). If you break these rules you may be disqualified from the examination. The following items should not be brought in to the exam room:

- Erasable or correction pens.
- Glasses cases
- AppleWatches/smartwatches are strictly prohibited. All other watches digital or analogue must be taken off and placed on the desk in front of you for the duration of the exam.
- Mobile phones - Mobile telephones must not be brought into the examination room unless they are handed in and switched off (All Saints RC School will not take any responsibility for mobiles brought into an exam room) . If a mobile phone (or any other type of electronic communication or storage device) is found in your possession during an examination (even if it is turned off) it will be taken from you and a report made to the appropriate examination board. No exceptions can be made.
- No food or drink is allowed in the examination rooms, with the exception of water, which must be in a clear unlabeled see-through bottle.

Conduct:

- Do not draw graffiti or write comments on examination papers – if you do, the examination board may refuse to accept your paper.
- Listen carefully to instructions and notices read out by the invigilators – there may be amendments to the examination paper that you need to know about.
- Check you have the correct question paper – check the subject, paper and tier of entry.
- Read all instructions carefully and number your answers clearly.
- Candidates must stay in the examination room for the duration of the examination. You will not be allowed to leave an examination room early without the express permission of the Examinations Officer. If you have finished the paper, use any time remaining to check over your answers and ensure you have completed your details correctly.
- At the end of the examination all work must be handed in. Remember to cross out any rough work. If you have used more than one answer book or loose sheets of paper put them together in the correct order inside the main answer book.
- Invigilators will collect your examination papers before you leave the room. Absolute silence must be maintained during this time. Remember you are still under examination conditions until you have left the room.
- Question papers, answer booklets and additional paper must not be taken from the examination room.
- Remain seated in silence until told to leave the examination room. Please leave the room in silence and show consideration for other candidates who may still be working.
- If the fire alarm sounds during an examination the invigilators will tell you what to do. Do not panic! If you have to evacuate the room you will be asked to leave in silence and in the order in which you are sitting. You will be escorted to a designated assembly point. Leave everything on your desk. You must not attempt to communicate with anyone else during the evacuation. If you attempt to communicate with anyone this will be reported to the awarding body and may lead to disqualification or a penalty for that paper. When you return to the examination room, do not start writing until the invigilator tells you to do so. You will be allowed the full working time for the examination and a report will be sent to the awarding body detailing the incident.

Invigilators:

Invigilators are in the examination rooms to supervise the conduct of the examination. They will hand out extra writing paper if required and deal with any problems that occur during the examination, for example if a candidate is feeling ill.

Please note that invigilators cannot discuss the examination paper with candidates or explain the questions.

Absence from Examinations:

If you experience difficulties during the examination period (e.g. illness, injury, or personal problems), please inform school at the earliest possible point so we can help or advise you.

Only in 'exceptional circumstances' are candidates allowed special consideration for absence from any part of an examination. It is essential that medical or other appropriate evidence is obtained on the day by the candidate/parent and given to the Examinations Officer, without delay. Your doctor or nurse must have signed the documentation.

Please note that misreading the timetable will not be accepted as a satisfactory explanation for absence.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. What do I do if there is a clash on my timetable?

The school will re-schedule papers internally (on the same day) where there is a clash of subjects. Candidates will normally sit one paper then have a break during which they will be supervised and isolated, as they must not have any communication with other candidates. They will then sit the second subject paper. Correct times should be on your individual candidate timetable. If in doubt, please consult the Examinations Officer.

Q. What do I do if I think I have the wrong paper?

The Invigilator will ask you to check your paper before the examination starts. If you think something is wrong, put your hand up and tell the Invigilator immediately.

Q. What do I do if I forget the School Centre Number?

The Centre Number is 48378. It will be clearly displayed in the examination room.

Q. What do I do if I have an accident or am ill before the examination?

Inform school at the earliest possible point so we can help or advise you. In the case of an accident that means you are unable to write it may be possible to provide you with a scribe to write your answers, but we will need as much prior notice as possible.

You will need to obtain medical evidence (from your GP or hospital) if you wish the school to make an 'Appeal for Special Consideration' on your behalf (see below).

Q. What is an Appeal for Special Consideration?

Special Consideration is a post examination adjustment to a candidate's mark to reflect temporary illness, injury or other indisposition at the time of the assessment. The allowance for Special Consideration is from 0% (consideration given but addition of marks considered inappropriate) to 5% (reserved for very exceptional cases). Parents should be aware that any adjustment is likely to be small and no feedback is ever provided. Candidates will only be eligible for Special Consideration if they have been fully prepared and covered the whole course, but performance in the actual examination or assessment is affected by adverse circumstances beyond their control. Examples of such circumstances may be severe illness, accident or injury, bereavement or domestic crisis at the time of the examination/assessment. The Examinations Officer must be informed immediately so that the necessary paperwork can be completed. The candidate will be required to provide evidence to support such an application.

Q. What do I do if I feel ill during the examination?

Put your hand up and an invigilator will assist you. You should inform an invigilator if you feel ill before or during an examination.

Q. If I'm late, can I still sit the examination?

Provided you arrive at school by 9.30am or by 2.00pm, it may still be possible for you to sit the examination. You should get to school as quickly as possible and report to Reception. A member of staff will inform the Examinations Officer who will escort you to the examination room. You must not enter an examination room without permission after an examination has begun.

You should also be aware that if you start the examination more than 30 minutes after the published starting time, the school must inform the examination board and it is possible that the board may decide not to accept your work. Please ensure that you allow enough time to get to school so that if you are delayed (e.g. through transport problems) you will still arrive on time.

Q. If I miss the examination can I take it on another day?

No. Timetables are regulated by the examination boards and you must attend on the given date and time.

Q. Do I have to wear school uniform?

Yes. Normal school regulations apply to uniform, hair, jewellery, make-up, etc.

Q. What equipment should I bring for my examinations?

For most examinations you should bring at least two pens (black ink only), two HB pencils, a 30cm ruler (marked with cm and mm), a pencil sharpener and a rubber. For some examinations you will need a calculator (Maths/Science), a compass, a protractor and coloured pencils (not gel pens). Your teacher should be able to advise you prior to the examinations.

You are responsible for providing your own equipment for examinations. You must not attempt to borrow equipment from another candidate during the examination.

Q. What is allowed in the examination room?

Only material that is listed on question papers is permitted in the examination room and pupils who are found to have any material with them that is not allowed will be reported to the appropriate examinations board. In such circumstances, a pupil would normally be disqualified from the paper of the subject concerned.

Items not permitted under examination regulations must be left in the care of the invigilators. Do not bring any valuables into school when you attend for an examination.

No food or drink is allowed in the examination room, with the exception of water which must be in a clear, unlabeled see-through bottle.

Mobile telephones – If you have to bring a mobile, it must be switched off and left in the box provided at the front of the examination room. Please note that some mobile telephones have an alarm/alert system that activates even when the telephone is switched off. Check your telephone and cancel any alarms/alerts.

Q. Why can't I have my mobile telephone on me in the examination room?

Being in possession of a mobile telephone (or any other electronic communication device, e.g. iPod, headphones, AppleWatch/any smartwatches) is regarded as cheating and is subject to severe penalty from the awarding bodies.

The minimum penalties are as follows:

Device found on you and turned ON – disqualification for the entire subject award.

Device found on you and turned OFF – disqualification from the specific paper you are sitting at the time.

Telephone rings during the examination wherever it is in the room – the examination board must be informed and you will be disqualified from all papers (including any already taken).

Q. How do I know how long the examination is?

The length of the examination is shown on your individual timetable under the heading 'duration'. Invigilators will tell you when to start and finish the examination. They will display the finish time of the examination on the white board at the front of the examination room. There will be a clock in all examination rooms.

Q. Can I leave the examination early?

It is not the school's policy to allow candidates to leave the examination room early, as this is disruptive to other candidates. A candidate may not leave the examination room without the permission of the Examinations Officer.

Q. What do I do if the fire alarm goes?

The examination invigilators will tell you what to do. If you have to evacuate the room, leave everything on your desk and leave the room in silence. You must not attempt to communicate with any other candidates during the evacuation. Any attempt to communicate with another candidate will be reported to the exam board and could result in disqualification from the paper of the subject concerned.

Q. Can I go to the toilet during the examination?

Only if it is absolutely necessary. The Examinations Officer has to be sent for to cover the absence. Once the Examinations Officer has arrived, an invigilator will escort you.

Q. Why do I need to check my details on the Statement of Entry?

The details on your statement of entry will be used when certificates are printed. If the name or date of birth on your certificates does not match your birth certificate it could cause you problems if you are asked to show your certificates to a potential employer. You should also check that the subjects and tiers of entry you are entered for are correct and that no subjects are missing.

Q. I am entitled to extra time – how will this affect the way I take my examinations?

Some pupils receive an allowance of up to 25% extra time. Where possible such candidates will be seated together to minimise disturbance from other candidates who finish earlier. The invigilators will include the additional time when they display the finishing time of your examination on the board.

Q. What do I do if I don't get the grades I need/expect?

Teaching staff will be available to advise you on results day. If you feel strongly that it is necessary to make an enquiry about your result you should first consult the Head of Department to obtain their advice as to the advisability of requesting a review of the paper. You should be aware that your mark could go down as well as up or even stay the same. Details about post results services will be accessible on results day.

Information for candidates – GCSE controlled assessments

This document tells you about some things that you must and must not do when you are completing your work.

When you submit any work for marking, you will be asked to sign an authentication statement confirming that you have read and followed these regulations.

If there is anything that you do not understand, you must ask your teacher or lecturer.

Controlled assessment will provide you with an opportunity to do some independent research into a topic. The research you do may involve looking for information in published sources such as textbooks, encyclopedias, journals, TV, radio and on the internet.

Using information from published sources (including the internet) as the basis for your assignment is a good way to demonstrate your knowledge and understanding of a subject. You must take care how you use this material though - you cannot copy it and claim it as your own work.

The regulations state that:

“the work which you submit for assessment must be your own”;

“you must not copy from someone else or allow another candidate to copy from you”.

If you use the same wording as a published source, you must place quotation marks around the passage and state where it came from. This is called “referencing”. You must make sure that you give detailed references for everything in your work which is not in your own words. A reference from a printed book or journal should show the name of the author, the year of publication and the page number, for example: (Morrison, 2000, pg.29).

For material taken from the internet, your reference should show the date when the material was downloaded and must show the precise web page, not the search engine used to locate it. This can be copied from the address line. For example:

(<http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/16/sosteacher/history/49766.shtml>), downloaded 5 February 2017.

You may be required to include a bibliography at the end of your work. Your teacher or lecturer will tell you whether a bibliography is necessary. Where required, your bibliography must list the full details of publications you have used in your research, even where these are not directly referred to, for example: Morrison, A. (2000) ‘Mary, Queen of Scots’, London: Weston Press.

If you copy the words or ideas of others and don’t show your sources in references and a bibliography, this will be considered as cheating.

Preparing your work – good practice

If you receive help and guidance from someone other than your teacher, you must tell your teacher who will then record the nature of the assistance given to you.

If you worked as part of a group on an assignment, for example undertaking field research, you must each write up your own account of the assignment. Even if the data you have is the same, the description of how that data was obtained and the conclusions you draw from it should be in your own words.

You must meet the deadlines that your teacher gives you. Remember - your teachers are there to guide you. Although they cannot give you direct assistance, they can help you to sort out any problems before it is too late.

Take care of your work and keep it safe. Don't leave it lying around where your classmates can find it. You must always keep your work secure and confidential whilst you are preparing it; do not share it with your classmates. If it is stored on the computer network, keep your password secure. Collect all copies from the printer and destroy those you don't need.

Don't be tempted to use essays from on-line essay banks — this is cheating. Electronic tools used by awarding bodies can detect this sort of copying.

You must not write inappropriate, offensive or obscene material.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism involves taking someone else's words, thoughts or ideas and trying to pass them off as your own. It is a form of cheating which is taken very seriously.

Don't think you won't be caught; there are many ways to detect plagiarism.

- Markers can spot changes in the style of writing and use of language.
- Markers are highly experienced subject specialists who are very familiar with work on the topic concerned — they may have read the source you are using (or even marked the essay you have copied from!).
- Internet search engines and specialised computer software can be used to match phrases or pieces of text with original sources and to detect changes in the grammar and style of writing or punctuation.

Penalties for breaking the regulations

If your work is submitted and it is discovered that you have broken the regulations, one of the following penalties will be applied:

- the piece of work will be awarded zero marks;
- you will be disqualified from that unit for the examination series in question;
- you will be disqualified from the whole subject for that examination series;
- you will be disqualified from all subjects and barred from entering again for a period of time.

Your awarding body will decide which penalty is appropriate.

REMEMBER – IT'S YOUR QUALIFICATION SO IT NEEDS TO BE YOUR OWN WORK

- Markers can spot changes in the style of writing and use of language.
- Markers are highly experienced subject specialists who are very familiar with work on the topic concerned — they may have read or seen the source you are using (or even marked the essay you have copied from!).
- Internet search engines and specialised computer software can be used to match phrases or pieces of text with original sources and to detect changes in the grammar and style of writing or punctuation.

General and Vocational qualifications

Effective from 1 September 2016

The JCQ awarding bodies will process your personal data in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 and the Code of Practice issued by the qualification regulators of England, Wales and Northern Ireland.

Correspondence on any aspect of a candidate's examination or assessment will only be conducted between the awarding body and the head of the centre, a member of the senior leadership team or the examinations officer.

Awarding bodies will undertake the following administrative activities in relation to the processing and exchange of candidates' personal data:

1. Personal data relating to the name(s), date of birth, gender, unique candidate identifier (UCI) and unique learner number (ULN) of an individual candidate will always be collected by an awarding body for the purposes of examining and awarding qualifications. In some cases additional information, which may include sensitive personal data relating to health, will also be collected to support requests for access arrangements and reasonable adjustments and/or special consideration. Such personal data will be supplemented by the results of examinations and assessments undertaken by the respective candidate.
2. A candidate's personal data will only be collected from registered examination centres in the context of examination entries and/or certification claims.
3. Such data collected will not be used by an awarding body other than for the administration of the examinations process, conducting assessments and the certification of results claims.
4. Personal data within candidates' work will be collected and processed by an awarding body for the purposes of marking, issuing of examination results and providing candidates with access to post-results services. Examination results will be retained for a minimum of forty years.

In order for an awarding body to achieve this, some personal information may be transferred to third parties such as examiners, who may in some instances, reside outside the European Economic Area.

5. Awarding bodies may be required to provide a candidate's personal data to educational agencies such as DfE, WG, DENI, The Skills Funding Agency, Ofqual, HESA, UCAS, Local Authorities, EFA and Learning Records Service (LRS). Additionally, candidates' personal data may be provided to a central record of qualifications approved by the awarding bodies for statistical and policy development purposes.
6. Some of the information candidates supply will be used by the Skills Funding Agency to fulfil its statutory functions, issue/verify a candidate's Unique Learner Number (ULN) and update/check a candidate's Personal Learning Record.

The Skills Funding Agency may share a candidate's ULN and Personal Learning Record with other education related organisations, such as a careers service, a candidate's school or college, Government Departments and public bodies responsible for education. Further details of how information is processed and shared can be found at:

<http://www.learningrecordservice.org.uk/>

7. Awarding bodies are obliged to confirm what personal data is held, what it is held for, to whom the data is to/may be disclosed to, and disclose the information that they hold about data subjects, (e.g. the candidates) within 40 days of receiving a formal request for disclosure, subject to the application of any relevant exemptions under the Data Protection Act 1998.

Candidates should make an application to the appropriate awarding body's data protection officer. Awarding bodies may charge a fee for this service.

8. If you have not reached the age of 16, you may first wish to discuss this Privacy Notice with your parent or legal guardian.

Awarding bodies, schools, Department for Education (DfE), Welsh Government (WG), Department of Education Northern Ireland (DENI), Local Authorities, the Office of the Qualifications and Examinations Regulation (Ofqual), Ofsted, and Skills Funding Agency (SFA) are all 'data controllers' under the Data Protection Act 1998, in that they determine the purpose(s) for which 'personal data' (information about living individuals from which they can be identified) is processed and the way in which that processing is undertaken.

It is a requirement for data controllers to provide data subjects (individuals who are the subject of personal data) with details of who they are, the purposes for which they process the personal data, and any other information that is necessary to make the processing of the personal data secure and accurate, including any third parties to whom it may be passed to.

Guidelines when referring to examinations/assessments through the Internet

This document has been written to help you. Please read it carefully.

We all like to share our experiences when taking examinations. However, it is important to consider what you say. Your comments may lead to an investigation for malpractice and result in the application of a penalty.

Awarding bodies monitor social media and websites. They do not wish to see candidates jeopardise their marks or grades as there are significant consequences for anyone caught breaching the rules for examinations, controlled assessment or coursework.

The rules are set by the Joint Council for Qualifications^{CIC} (JCQ^{CIC}) on behalf of all the awarding bodies and can be found at: <http://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/malpractice>

Examples of statements or activities that will lead to a malpractice investigation include:

- copying or allowing work to be copied – i.e. posting written work on social networking sites prior to an examination/assessment;
- collusion: working collaboratively with other candidates beyond what is permitted;
- allowing others to help produce your work or helping others with theirs;
- being in possession of confidential material in advance of the examination;
- exchanging, obtaining, receiving or passing on information by any means of communication (even if just attempting to);
- passing on rumours of exam content from another candidate.

This list is not exhaustive. Other instances of candidate malpractice may be considered by an awarding body.

If you are found guilty of breaching any of these rules you could find yourself facing:

- a warning;
- the loss of marks for a section, component or unit;
- disqualification from a unit, all units or qualifications; or
- a ban from sitting exams for a set period of time.

You must familiarise yourself with the rules:

<http://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/information-for-candidates-documents>

Take care to avoid possible malpractice and the application of a penalty.
